MASTER PLANNING: The downtown authority is organizing workshops to let area stakeholders share concerns and ideas for downtown Miami's proposed master plan. The plan provides a long-term blueprint for the revitalization of downtown into a vibrant urban center and is to guide future public investment in the district. A workshop is scheduled for 6-8 p.m. today (3/26) at Mary Brickell Village and another at the same time March 31 at the authority's offices, 200 S Biscayne Blvd., Suite 2929.
