The first season of the DWNTWN Miami Concert Series is ending with a bang. Conjunto Progreso with special guest Arturo Sandoval are set to close out the season on Friday, April 10th. Conjunto Progreso, known as the "Buena Vista Social Club of Miami", takes audiences back in time to the nostalgic era of early Cuban popular music with their traditional Son Cubano ensemble. The multi generational band will be tearing up the stage with Grammy award winning trumpet player, Arturo Sandoval, who can burn through an Afro-Cuban groove, tear up a bebop tune, soar over a Mozart concerto and sooth you with a luscious ballad; all with equal power and grace. The show presented by the Miami DDA at the Tina Hills Pavillion in Bayfront Park is a sunset happy hour and as always food and drinks are available. The fun starts at 5:30 pm.

This is going to be an amazing show and we'd love to see you there!
