

MIAMI TODAY

September 23, 2009

Circulation: 71,750

SITTIN' PRETTY: The Downtown Development Authority's $1 million landscaping and irrigation project in Brickell Avenue's median started at the beginning of the month, said Mark Spanioli, senior manager for planning, design, transportation and services. The work, from Southeast 15th Road to Fifth Street, is to take 30 to 45 days and is "strictly aesthetic." The Florida Department of Transportation's $3 million project, which could provide flood relief to businesses along Brickell and in Mary Brickell Village, he added, is to begin in about a year.