Bossacucanova In Miami

Regular readers know I don't promote many events here at SFDB so when I tell you that you shouldn't miss Bossacuconova in downtown Miami on Friday afternoon then it should tell you how much I think of this Brazilian band.

From the email I got yesterday...

The Miami DDA is presenting a Burle Marx celebration for the beautiful new sidewalk and landscaping for the Biscayne Boulevard New World Design project by legendary Brazilian designer Roberto Burle Marx. Enjoy Brazilian culture, dance, food, and fun - and catch a FREE CONCERT by one of our favorite bands direct from Rio de Janeiro: BOSSACUCANOVA!

Friday October 2nd, event starts at 5:30PM
East Plaza of AmericanAirlines Arena, Biscayne Blvd at NE 6 Street, Miami
After party at Botequim Carioca
