What/Why:

The Miami Downtown Development Authority is celebrating the completion of the beautiful new Bule Marx sidewalk along Biscayne Blvd. Bule Marx is the legendary Brazilian designer who created Rio de Janeiro's iconic sidewalks.

Enjoy a mini-trip to Rio at the party: capoeira, drummers, dancers, food and fun. Plus a FREE show by one of our favorite Brazilian groups - Bossacucanova - blending classic bossa nova tunes with electronica.

The After Show party is at Botequim Carioca.
